Description

The Axopar 28 Cabin delivers the perfect combination of performance, versatility, and Scandinavian design. Built around Axopar's renowned hull, the 28 offers an exceptionally smooth, efficient ride with confident handling in a wide range of conditions.

The enclosed pilothouse provides excellent protection from the elements while maintaining outstanding visibility and an open, airy feel. Walkaround side decks, generous bow and aft spaces, and a thoughtfully designed cabin make this an ideal platform for everything from weekend cruising and entertaining, to fishing and exploring.

Compact enough to handle with ease yet substantial enough for serious time on the water, the Axopar 28 Cabin has earned its reputation as one of the most versatile boats in its class. A great opportunity for anyone looking for distinctive styling, capable performance, and true all-weather usability in a manageable package.
